

Discussion Questions

1) Jesse said that practically, to grow in your faith, you need to surround yourself with believers who live by faith. Who are the people that are surrounding you, who live by faith, and are there any changes you need to make in your friendships?

2) Jesse mentioned that just saying you believe without having actions to follow is not true faith. Why do actions need to follow faith? See James 2:14-26.

3) Why is it hard to live by faith?

4) 1 Cor 7:14 says, "Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him." Why is it important not to compare how God has called you to live by faith, with another person's calling that may look different?
