Discussion Questions

Read Matthew 16:13-26

1. Can you think of biblical characters (besides Peter) who had a faulty perspective? Can you identify what might have caused it?
2. Can you share a time when you had a wrong perspective? What helped you adjust?
3. Being aware of other perspectives around us might help us with our relationships. What different perspectives can you identify in your circle of acquaintances?
4. What kinds of things might we do to help us be open to perspective changes? How might we help each other stay open to such adjustments?
5. How do you know when your perspective might be incorrect?
